
NOTE FROM NICOLE

The maiden voyage

Now to Him who is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think, according to the power at work within us, to Him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

Ephesians 3:20-21

It happened! The very first summer traveling with the completed bus and travel camper, happened. The summer had a bit of a rough start, though. If I told you all the details of the first couple weeks, it would require more than a couple paragraphs. And if I told you one of the scenarios included Chris on the phone with the police for accused theft, you might think I was joking! It was all resolved and we laugh about it now. It just shows how Satan was really trying hard to distract us from ministry.

But despite the struggles in the beginning, Jesus blessed us with a profitable summer. We had the opportunity to share the gospel during every program, so many children and their families heard the life changing truth of the Bible. I even had the privilege to lead a couple kids to Christ, one of which ran to me in the back of the church before the service was over, because he was so eager to get saved!

Life on the road with our travel homes was wonderful! It was so nice not to have to live out of a suitcase for 10 weeks. My back and neck loved not having to get accustomed to a new bed every week. Thank you for your prayers for safety of our team. It was a bit of a learning curve for Chris to drive a 38-ft. bus, and for Juli and I to pull a 28-ft. camper behind a 15-passenger van, but the reward of having your own little space pulled behind you was worth it. Early in the summer, we held a FB Live event for both the camper and the bus. If you missed it, and would like the virtual tour, you can check out the God's Helping Hands, Inc. facebook page, under videos.

Fall brings bonfires, beautiful changing colored trees, pumpkin spice everything (which I'm okay with), and new projects at the office. We have been busy gathering together all the elements for our missions series since we are involved with a local church's missions conference. And before you know it, we will be pulling out the Christmas series.

A shot of gorgeous northern Michigan I captured while on a little weekend road trip with my roommate, Juli.

I always enjoy grabbing my paint brushes when I can, and this was a fun project I got to be a part of. The building's sign outside was getting quite old and showing signs of wear, so I volunteered to paint a new one. Thanks to the help of a graphic design friend of ours, we added the logo to a fun background of shades of blue and came up with what you see pictured here. We hope this sign, along with a new metal frame, will welcome visitors for years to come.

My monthly support still holds at just 50%. If you have been considering joining my financial support team, I would be honored and so excited. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Your prayers and financial support are a vital part of my ministry. I couldn't be a part of GHH without you! Thank you so much for your interest and friendship.

Joyfully Serving,
