

The Knobloch Report in Pictures: Spring 2012

Costuming is an important part of bringing realism to our puppets and their message. Amber organizes volunteers for the sewing of costumes (and sometimes even recruits Chris!)

Props and staging give the settings of the stories. This year's staging is particularly complex!

Kylie and Elli love the puppets. Some of them are more like "personal friends"!

Please pray for us as we deliver the truth of the Gospel to boys and girls and their families! "The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much." (James 5:16b) Your prayers and support keep us going! Thank you!

All for Jesus, Chris and Amber Knobloch, Kylie and Elli
